LADIES OF FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH ARRANGE A BAZAAR

MRS. GEORGE E. OWENS, Treasurer.

The First Christian Church of this city has found it necessary to enlarge its auditorium in order to accommodate the increasingly large attendance at its Sunday services. To this end the ladies of the church have arranged to hold a four days bazzar. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, December II to 13 inclusive. Preparations for this bazzar have been in progress for several weeks, and the departments will contain a wide range of articles softmide for Christmas presents. The following will preside over the several departments:

Mrs. John L. Brandt will have charge of the "Sample Booth," for which donations have been received, not only from the city, but also from other parts of the country. Miss Ella Schureman will have charge of the "Pancy Goods" department, and Mrs. Nettle Quisenberry will superintend the "Handserchief Booth," Mrs. F. Goehring will have charge of the "Apron Booth," and Mrs. Clara Schleef will conduct the "Cahrly Booth." The "Doll Booth," will be in charge of Mrs. A. S. Cronch and the "Quitt and Comfort Booth," will be conducted by Mrs. L. Crenshaw, The "Christmas Tree" is in charge of Mrs. J. P. Smith and Miss Bessle Spicer, and Santa Claus will recognize the occasion as an opportune time in which to pay his respects to the little folks. ingly large attendance at its Sunday ser-Bessie Spicer, and Santa Claus will recognize the occasion as an opportune time in at the First Christian Church. This action was taken by the church last Monday night, and it is thought that the new arrangement will prove eminently satisfactory.

The Reverend Mr. Heiser is a native of Ohio, was educated at the Ohio State University and Butler University, Irvington, Ind., and was ordained a minister soon after his connection with Doctor Brandt as private accretary.

The lesson in hand immediately follows that part of the Sermon on the Mount End of God's New Testament Israel. In the verses under consideration two distinct qualities of Christian character are emphasized—one under that of "light." Both figures are striking.

Salt is the greatest remedial agent in nature. Its antiseptic qualities make it of great value to the materia medica, and its chemical properties give it wide range in the arts and sciences. Moreover, salt is a great preservator, and its curing qualities are of the first order. Thus it becomes an admirable type of genuine Christianity in the life, which exercises like properties, morally and spiritually. Christianity is the only remedial agency for sin in the human soul, the preservator of the race from utter destruction, and it is appointed for the healing of the nations. Well may Christ say of all his true followers, "Ye are the salt of the earth." Had there been found ten righteous persons in Sodom, it would not have been destroyed. It is only when the salt has lost its sayof that it is to be east out and be trodden under foot of men.

Ight-But perhaps the more striking figure used to illustrate true Christianity in the life is that of "lighth." "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid." How true! How impressive! Ever since the resting of the "star" over Bethiehem, the night on which that light began to shine, it has been reflected in increasing brightness in the lives of the millions of followers of the cross. To-day Christianity is, in a pre-eminent sense, the light of the world. There is not a phase of our civilization but reflects the light of the "sun of righteousness," It has also permeated the remotest corners of heathendom, so that we may truly sing—

The morning light is breaking,

The sons of God are waking

The darkness disappears, The sons of God are waking To penitential tears.

of life.

Second, by living a consistent Christian life among those outside the home with whom we mingle day by day. There is no more effectual way of preaching the gospel than this. Men may steel their hearts against the verbal presentation of truth, but they cannot resist the power of a consistent Christian life. When a mun is a true follower of the Christ in his business and professional life, the mouth of the seoffer is closed.

and professional life, the mouth of the scoffer is closed.

Lastly, we may let our light shine by personal connection with and interest in the affairs of the church of Jesus Christ, "which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all." It is a matter worthy of special note that there are perhaps as many, if not more, prominent business and professional men in our own city who are not ashamed to let their light shine in this way than in any other city of its size in this country.

until illness came upon me three years ago. I first noticed it by being irregular and having very painful and scanty menstruction; gradually my general health failed; I could not enjoy my meals; I became languid and nervous, with griping pains frequently nervous, with griping pains frequently in the groins.

"I advised with our family physician who prescribed without any improvement. One day he said.—'Try Lydia Pinkham's Remedies.' I did, thank God; the next month I was better, and it gradually built me up until in four months I was cared. This is nearly a year ago and I have not had a pain or ache since."—Bonnus DELANO, 3248 Indiana Ave., Chicago, III.—45000 for it if also testiment is not Ill. - $5000 forfelt if above testimental to me Trestworthy proof is abundant that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves thousands of young women from dangers resulting from organic irregularity, suppression or retention of the menses, ovarian or remains treating. Refuse substitutes.

PRODUCED THE FAMILY BIBLE

East St. Louis Man Convinces Marriage License Clerk of His Age. When Marriage License Clerk Filler of East St. Louis is in doubt, he turns to the Bible, or at least that is what a prospective bridgegroom had him do yesterday when he doubted that the applicant for a license was of the required age.

William Walker had made up his mind William Walker had made up his mind to get married, and, having secured the consent of Miss Mary Glavin, he repaired to the office of the clerk to procure the necessary papers, but the clerk in charge would not issue them, declaring that Walker did not appear to him to be 21 years old. The young man went away very much disappointed, but later he returned with the family Bible, and, showing the official the record of his birth, proving that he was born on February 7, 189, he readily convinced Mr. Filley that he had told the truth, and a license was granted him.

Miss Glavin, who will now become Mra. Walker, is 22 years old, which fact avoided any trouble on her part.

ACCIDENT AT WATERWORKS

New Electric Generating Plant Is

Temporarily Crippled. engine, which met with an accident. This plant furniches power for lighting the Waterworks pumping stations, and for operating the Waterworks railway.

The engine was disabled by the breaking of the piston, the cracking of the cylinder and the bending of the piston rod. Water Commissioner Flad says the engine was in charge of the contractors, and has not yet been accepted by the city, consequently the city will suffer no loss through yesterday's mishap.
